Worcester, Providence and other dittes are within the territory from there were yards in East Brooklyn, near Wauregan and near Alexander's lake. The last named yard netted its owner a splendid fortune within the period of a few years.

The urgency of the proposition at this time is that there is going to be a brick shortage during the coming spring. One well known local come tractor said Thursday that it is going to be very difficult to secure brick for buildings. The yards are practically cleaned out and the demand for the product is greater than the supply of the yards in southern New England. A prediction that prices will be $18 a thousand is freely make.
